

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SoCal Irish Actor Set for Queens World Film Festival.

The indie physiological thriller Neither Day Nor Night produced by Metin Yigit directed by Chris Schwab and starring Irish actor Anthony B. Cohen is set for its East Coast premiere on March 3rd at the Queens World Film Festival.

When a young woman returns home to care for her injured father, Harris (played by Cohen) she discovers her childhood is not what she thought it was. The film has received top honors at the Riverside International Film Festival and the Eugene International Film Festival.

Said Cohen, from his home in Long Beach "We are all very excited and plan to take a break from filming to attend the screening. Cohen is again teamed up with Yigit and Schwab to shoot their new feature film Look Closer filming in and around New York City.

Tony Cohen grew up in Walkinstown, Dublin, coincidentally, the same neighborhood as Gabriel Byrne. He began his stage acting career with the Tara Players of Winnipeg, Canada, and is the founding president of Tir Na nOg, an Irish Theatre in Denver CO, a theatre company devoted to sharing stories of or about the Irish. He now resides, with his wife, in Long Beach, California.

Further Information at <http://neitherdaynornight.com/press>

Anthony B. Cohen